

NIKKI DAVIS

BOOKER

Nikki Davis has had a long and varied career in the Arts in Australia.

A trained dancer, Nikki's performance career grew into a modelling and acting journey from a young age. Her credits include walking for Australian Fashion Week, David Jones and Westfield, stills campaigns for Nike and Rebel and television and cinema advertising for Mazda, Virgin, Lipton and Telstra. She also featured in various character roles on The Merrick and Rosso Show and hosted web clips for Vodafone, Sony, Canadian Club and Toyota.

Nikki's keen interest in the "behind the scenes" of the entertainment industry, along with her Degree in Communications (with a specialisation in media studies), has seen her work in event and video production as well script writing for many years.

Combining her industry experience, passion for communicating and an undying love of the Arts, Nikki joined the Jeep Mgmt Group team in 2009 and has not looked back. Now with years of agency experience and a proven rapport with Artists, Nikki is proud to be the Head Booker at FWD MGMT.
